If you are reading this letter, then it means that you are considering Stuart Brown Construction for your project. That might be a new home, an addition or a makeover. I will be right up front and say that you can not pick a better company for your project. I probably should not use the word "company". You will get to know that the people who work with Stu and find them to be very conscientious about their work and that it be a quality product in the end. Lisa, Kerry, Roberto, Robert and others are truly delightful to get to know.

My relationship with Stu goes back 10+ years. Stu and I worked for a builder here in Charlotte for several years. We built and sold a lot of homes those couple years we worked together. As with many people, we both had higher aspirations in life. Stu branched out to build custom homes under his own name. Mostly through word of mouth, the business grew. Occasionally, Stu builds a spec home and contracts with me to market the property. Ever home we have done together has resulted in happy homeowner at the end. Most of which you will find as Stu's best references today.

My wife and I had considered moving. We just needed a little more space. In the end, we could not find what we wanted in the right location. Plus, we loved our neighbors and neighborhood. That meant a home addition was in order. Not a simple task when you have a smaller lot, a challenging roof line and a pool going in at the same time. We knew that we could only trust one person with such a task. Stu Brown. From day 1, Stu was ready with advice, thoughts to consider and money saving ideas. Stu also worked very closely with the pool contractor to make sure that the steps of each complimented what the other was doing. It went exceptionally well!

Sure, we have had a couple items that required attention after the project was complete. No need to worry. One phone call and it was taken care of.

I can't say enough about my friend, contractor and business associate. I have recommended him to a number of people and he has not let me down in the recommendation made.

If you would like to contact me please feel free to do so.
